Getting Ready for Primary 1

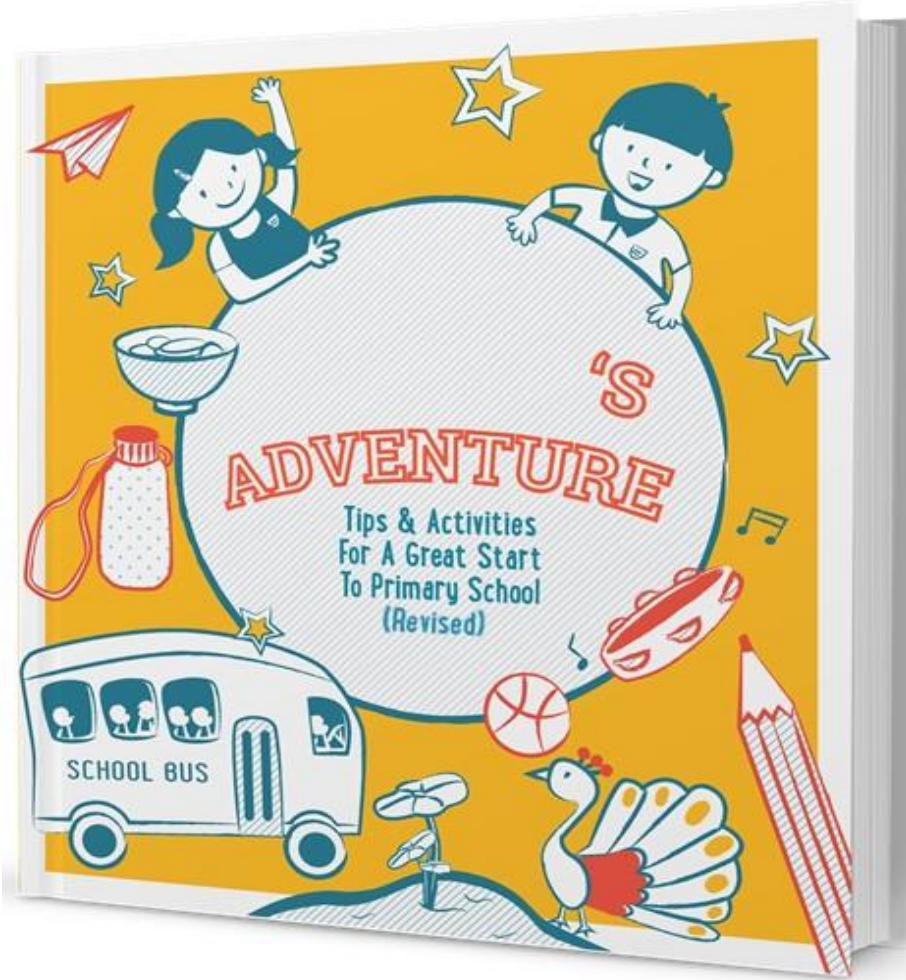

- How to help your child prepare for Primary 1
- Cultivate good school habits and reading habit

FOR YOU & YOUR CHILD

Parent-Child Activity Book

Tips & Activities for a Great Start to Primary School

What's inside?

- Relate to others by building your child's interpersonal skills
- Develop good habits in your child by setting up routines for them
- Develop the right learning attitude in your child for them to transit smoothly into the learning routines in primary school
- Set up a conducive home environment so that your child can learn both at home and in school

The image shows a stack of four activity cards from a children's book or worksheet set. The top card is yellow and titled "Making Friends Is Fun!". It features two cartoon children, one boy and one girl, both wearing white shirts and blue pants. The boy has a speech bubble saying "Hello, my name is" and the girl says "My name is Nice to meet you!". A small cloud icon in the top left corner says "Practice". Below this card, the other three cards are partially visible, each with a different title and a corresponding illustration:

- What's In Your School Bag?: An illustration of a red backpack with a pencil and a ruler sticking out. A small cloud icon says "Show-and-Say".
- Let's Buy Food: An illustration of a school canteen counter labeled "NOODLES". A boy is standing behind the counter, and another boy is pointing towards it. A small cloud icon says "Practice".
- Let Me Do It On My Own!: An illustration of a boy standing at a sink, washing his hands. A small cloud icon says "Boss".

Each card includes a short text box with instructions for parents or teachers.

At the back of the book, you would also find an insert with additional resources

HAVE FUN WITH YOUR CHILD!

SCHOOL-HOME PARTNERSHIP

Our children do best when schools and parents work hand in hand to support them.

Parent Support Group PSG

The PSG consists of a group of dedicated parents who partner the school to support fellow parents in nurturing their children. It is the platform for parents to network, share, learn and support each other in this parenting journey.
